STATE FIRE MARSHAL

Dear Chief,

The date and location of the next South Dakota Fire and Emergency Services Instructor's course has been set for December 9 & 10, 2017 at the Pierre Fire Station, 215 W. Dakota, Pierre.

If you and/or someone from your department are interested in attending, there are several prerequisites that are required in order to attend: class Limited to 21 students

- The candidate(s) must be nominated in writing by you the Chief, to the Fire Marshal's Office by October 13, 2017. This will insure that the student(s) will have ample time to prepare for their individual presentations and also receive their course materials. Please include a current email address for each nominated candidate.
- The candidate(s) must have been a member of a fire department for five years.
- The candidate(s) must have passed the Certified Firefighter Course with at least an 80% on both written tests. (Test results will be verified by the Pierre Office.)

After receiving written acceptance from our office to attend this course, you and/or your Candidate(s) will need to contact the South Dakota Redbook Fund to acquire their course materials. The cost to attend this two-day course is $70.00. The course textbook is the eighth edition of IFSTA's Fire and Emergency Services Instructor. In the event a candidate finds that they are unable to attend the course they will need to make contact with the Redbook Fund regarding their refund and return policy. The course fee includes the course textbook, break refreshments and course material mailing fees.

The Redbook Fund may be reached at any of the following means: SD Redbook Fund, Adam and Kendra Frick 407 Burgess Rd Yankton, SD 57078 or 605-760-4693 or sdredbook@gmail.com

Please contact any of the Fire Marshal's office staff if you have any questions or concerns regarding this course.
