Class size is limited to 50

Pheasant Country FOOLS have teamed up with the South Dakota Firefighter Association SouthEast District to offer The Pheasant Country Firemanship Class.

The firemanship class focus on sharpening 5 core firefighting skills: Hose Stretch, Hose Advancement, Forcible Entry, Ladders, and Search.

Participants will work with some of the areas finest instructors in each of the five disciplines of firefighting. Participants will be challenged by the instructors as they progress through the five stations. At the end of the day we will combine skills learned at the stations into scenario based training.

Hose Stretch: Participants will focus on the quickest and cleanest way to deploy from the apparatus to the structure. We will focus on flat and triple loaded hose. Instructors: Tanner Sittig (Watertown) and Zach Wisenburger (Sioux Falls).

Hose Advancement: Participants will learn to efficiently and quickly maneuver a charged hose line. They will also practice moving while flowing water. Instructors: Adam Frick (Yankton) Scott Rieland (Tea)

Forcible Entry: Participants will work through the conventional Gap, Set, Force method of forcible entry. As well as learn tricks how gain even more of a mechanical advantage. Instructors: Michael Lambertus (Brookings) Derek Axelsen (Watertown)

Ladders: Participants will have to opportunity to practice placings 16', 24' and 35' ladders, both as a team and as a single firefighter. Instructors: Pat Kaffar (Humboldt) Eric Bartz (Sioux Falls)

Search: Participants will learn how to quickly and efficiently to search a building. Instructors will stress the importance of a quick search and getting off of the "Search Train." Instructors: Matt Taggart (Vermillion) Michael Olson (Hartford)
